South India Textiles and Handcrafts: 22 February – 9 March 2027

Part 2 of 2 - Fitness to Travel Declaration

All retreat|recreate travellers must complete this declaration of their fitness to travel, and submit it to retreat|recreate with their Booking Application Form.

While retreat|recreate doesn't have an upper age limit on our tours, we recognise that some travellers may find our itineraries challenging. We have a duty of care to all tour participants, our tour guides, tour hosts and service providers. Due to recent experiences on some of our tours we have decided, like many other tour companies, to implement this new policy requiring participants to carefully and realistically assess their health, fitness and mobility and if appropriate, sign a declaration of their fitness to travel. This is in an effort to ensure the safety and enjoyment of all involved in our tours.

Our aim is for all our travellers to enjoy their tour, not struggle through it, and to not negatively impact others in the group or the itinerary. We reserve the right to decline an application if we feel that the requirements of the tour are beyond the capacity of the applicant. We also reserve the right to remove a traveller from the group during a tour without right of refund if the guide and host deem the traveller's levels of health, fitness and mobility are having a negative impact on the group and/or itinerary.

All participants MUST have good levels of health, fitness and mobility to participate in this tour and MUST be able to:

- Navigate arrival and departure airports without personal assistance
- Carry their luggage for short distances
- Embark and disembark coaches, jeeps, rickshaws and a houseboat without assistance
- Manage flights of stairs at a moderate pace without assistance. Not all of our hotels have elevators. Ground floor rooms are not always available and/or cannot be guaranteed. Some sightseeing locations (eg. forts and stepwells) also have flights of stairs
- Undertake walking tours including walking on uneven and hilly terrain
- Be on your feet for several hours at a time
- Stand for extended periods of time in galleries and museums
- Walk at a moderate pace and keep up with the guide and group
- Cope with warm to hot and sometimes humid weather
- Use squat toilets as western toilets are not always available in the villages we visit and road-side stops
- Use shower over bath facilities, as walk-in showers cannot be guaranteed
- Sit on the floor or a low stool for some workshops
- Cope with some long travel days and some consecutive travel days. Most of the travel on this trip is in a private, air-conditioned coach. Regular stops will be made for bathrooms, meals, sightseeing and photographic opportunities.
- Be prepared for some travel on rural roads. Some of the roads we encounter may not be maintained in as good condition as those you're used to at home, others don't have concrete/bitumen and some maybe be bumpy and or dusty.
- Be patient as distances are not necessarily indicative of travel times, road conditions can slow us down and travel can sometimes take longer than expected.
- Be able to satisfactorily and energetically participate in the full tour program as described

By signing below, I certify that:

- I have read the above information and the 'health, fitness and mobility' section of the Trip Notes;
- I understand my obligations regarding my participation in the tour;
- I verify that I adequately meet all of the health, fitness and mobility requirements as outlined;
- I verify that my assessment of my health, physical ability, fitness and mobility as described below is true and accurate;
- I agree to advise retreat|recreate of any negative changes in my health, fitness, mobility and/or medical circumstances that occur prior to departure that may impact my ability to fully participate in the tour;
- I understand that if the guide and host deem my health, fitness and mobility levels are not sufficient for the demands of the tour and/or are having a negative impact on the group and/or the itinerary, I may be removed from the tour with no right of refund.
